CAPTURE OF A BATTERY.

WASHINGTON, Saturday, May 3, 1862.
The following was received by the Secretary of The Richmond Examiner of May 2 contains the amnexed news items:

SAVANNAH, Thursday, May 1, 1802.

A dispatch from the Corinth correspondent of The Republican, dated the 29th of April says that the enemy have been re-enforced, and are advancing. There is heavy skirmishing daily. Quite an affair occurred to-day this side of Monterey. Monne, Thursday, May 1, 1862.

A special dispatch to The Mobile Advertiser, from Corinth on the 26th ult., says that Col. Scott's Louisiana Cavalry, consisting of two companies, had driven out a regiment of Unionista from Tuscumbia, killing several and taking forty prisoners. The enemy burned their stores, and were pursued by the Confederates. The result is unknown.

Months, Thursday, May 1, 1862. The telegraph operator from the Bay St. Louis has telegraphed to the Mobile office that the stores in New-Orleans were being emptied of sugar and moinsee, which were threwn into the streets and the river. The city was to have been formally surren lered on the 20th ult., but the time was extended. Some of the enemy's vessels have gone up the river.

Augusta, Wednesday, April 30, 1862.
The New-Orleans Bulletin of Friday says that F. B. Renshaw, Confederate States Navy Agent, telegraphed from Point Alabache on the 24th, that seven f our gunboats had been fired, after being overpowered by the enemy. The Navy Department re-ceived a similar dispatch last Saturday, but it is not known what boats are referred to.

SAVANNAH, Wednesday, April 30, 1862. Letters received here to-day from the prisoners taken at Fort Pulaski state that they are at Fort Columbus, on Governor's Island, New-York Harbor, all well, and kindly treated. SAYANNAH, Thursday, May 1, 1962. General Lawton has formally communicated to the SURRENDER OF FORT MACON.

From The Wilmington (N. C.) Journal of April 29 we have the following details of this event, which took place on Friday last, when the enemy opened fire from strong batteries of heavy Parrott and other rifled guns and mortars, planted within 1,400 yarof the fort, and behind very high sand-banks, while prevented their being seen by the garrison until t ire was opened.

LEATHER—We obtain the following review from H. D. Hell & Co's Weezly Circular:

Himtock Solk—We have no new features to notice in the market for this description. A very moderate business continues to be done, principally on orders, as but few buyers make their appearance in the market. In prices but httle quotable change has taken place and, though in some instances considerable concessions have been made to effect axios, many of the trade retuse to sell except at about did prices. The administration of the saces from the tannerles continue very light for the season, but the supply remains ample to meet the requirements for some time to come. Oax sole continues in limited demand only at about our annexed quotations. Upper to the rough is also dull of sale. The stock of both descriptions is light.
